WHY DO WE CELEBRATE SPECIAL SUNDAYS WITHOUT CHURCHWIDE OFFERINGS?

What do you celebrate? A milestone in your life? A team win? A child's good report card? Celebrations are important to our church life as well as to our personal lives. In The United Methodist Church, we celebrate five Special Sundays without churchwide offerings: Heritage Sunday, Laity Sunday, Organ and Tissue Donor Sunday, Men's Ministry Sunday and Women's Ministry Sunday.

WHY DO WE OBSERVE LAITY SUNDAY?

Lay people were vital to the early ministry of Methodist founder John Wesley. He was committed to helping people become disciples who live out their love of God and neighbor. Today, especially on Laity Sunday, we continue that legacy. On this Special Sunday, many United Methodist pastors invite lay people to lead the worship service. Often, the church's lay leader or a certified lay speaker delivers a sermon or several speakers offer mini-sermons or testimonies.
